

Here are a few Photos the Charcroft Chase Winery tour we went to on Sunday September the 18th 2016

With wine tasting and nibbles, at the completion of the tour oh a few of us brought a few bottles to take home as well.

Nice place in the valley of the Cashmere Hills, very sheltered little spot.

Waiting for the stragglers to arrive

Checking out the vines

Soaking up the sun.

Learning all about the wine making process.

Bottling and labelling.

The next part was the best of all and that was the wine tasting part and the nibbles. Sorry no photos from this part I wonder why?

Thanks to everyone for a lovely afternoon.
