

Welfare Fund - supporting members

The Amputee Society has a small discretionary Welfare Fund, which is used to support members who are experiencing difficulties with accessing equipment for everyday living requirement

Limited amounts of money may be provided to support people to maintain their independence.